President reports: Sarah Koch and Jen Rakowiecki

- Introduce Kristen Charlson who is interested in the treasurer position for the 2020-2021 school year

Director's Report: Jen Lato and Jeff Krubsack

- Master class for 5-7th hour students is being planned with area professionals mostly from Carroll college. This is tentatively scheduled for April 3rd. 2 clinicians, $100 each would be the cost. Action: solidify dates and plan event details- Jeff

Secretary report: JoEllen Haberlie

- Plant Sale: Tabal chocolates will not be sold at this fundraiser but will be considered for the future. Shady Lane Nursery forms were created by Sue Martin and are ready to be copied and sent home with students. We will sell hanging plants and credit vouchers. Dates for selling will be April 9th- April 23rd with pick up on Saturday May 9th. The bus to drop off plants is $95, a cost that we hope can be covered by fundraising account.
- Spring Social: Many baskets have been secured and we have received monetary donations, too. JoEllen and Tina will finalize the plans and send out an email letting the board know what we need for volunteers on the evening of the event. Rachel will advertise for this event.
- Spring all city concert: Flyers and promotion are needed for this event

Projects Chairperson report: Tom Hoffer (shared by Lisa Hollander)

- February 29th Solo & Ensemble food sales were not as lucrative as we had hoped. Suggestions for next year would be to have food and drink in the front entryway, is the event is at Longfellow again.
- June 3rd will be a Cousins night (date of the all city concert)

Vice President report: Shannon Malnory-Silbernagel

- All sponsors have been contacted.
- An alumni Facebook page has been created
- An opportunity with "Chip-In" (Beyond) is moving forward

Treasurer Report: Shari Young

- No report

Corresponding Secretary: Rachel Mosey

- Flyers for upcoming social and textile events were created and made available during the February 29th Solo & Ensemble
- Continue to advertise for these events

Volunteer Coordinator: Lisa Hollander

- 41 people have signed up for the Miller Park training. Each volunteer will need to take 2 online tests prior to the one-hour on-site Miller Park training. 7 continue to work on the alcohol training

Director at Large: Shanku Mays

- Banquet is set for Monday May 11th at Alioto's

Next meeting will be April 14 , at 6:30 PM.

Meeting adjourned at 7:36 PM
